

Ocean

Another hole inside
Trying to reach the world I cry out....
But no one ever hears me...or do I only whisper inaudibly?

I feel like life will pass
Before I get a grip on reality
Always wishing, hoping it will be better, or will it?
For some it never is...

It never feels right
I never see the light
And all the smiles they fade
Only tears remain for me...for me...
I never see the sun,
I don't want to be done
Don't want to tell you why all I do is hurt inside...inside...

And sometimes I know
I can't open my eyes anymore
All this dark is pressing down on me
I can't fight, 'cause I don't want to be

Why am I still waiting?
For a life that's already fading
When you're not here
Someone's call I think I hear...

Always trapped in vicious circles
Don't understand the colors around me
No! Not today!
I'll get up tomorrow...or the next day...
And I'll start living my life
And I swear I will find my smile
Just leave me to rest now
'Cause I can't...

It never feels right
I never see the light
And all the smiles they fade
Only tears remain for me...for me...

And sometimes I know
I can't open my eyes anymore
All this dark is pressing down on me
I can't fight, 'cause I don't want to be

Why am I still waiting
For a life that's already fading
Something breaks but I cannot move
Someone's call I think I hear...

Go, now go away!
I'm drowning...
Just leave me alone!
I'm drowning...
I want to...let go...

Depression is my smile...
