

BETWEEN THE LINES

She:

I keep looking for answers
For the reasons you're still trapped inside these walls
I keep looking but I can't see
You know you're free if you really want to be

I tried opening your eyes
But all I found was a hole, lifeless, dark and void
I keep living in fear
Waiting for the moment when you'll leave me here (alone)
I don't wanna live without you

Chorus1:

How can you not see what's become of us
But don't you wanna be free?
And live with me in reality – just us
Don't you wanna be free?

He:

I keep looking for answers
But I never could explain how it came to this
I keep waiting to see you
Release your mind, set you free so you can be with me

The walls keep us from dreaming
All the shit and the rot that burns our thoughts
The walls keep us from feeling
All the pain and the fear that thrived from us
And I just want you to come to me

Chorus2:

I wanna help you feel this warmth inside
'Cause I don't wanna be free
To live our lives in misery, no
No I don't wanna be free!

She:

I see you lose your color, your weight and form
You dissipate right before my eyes

He:

Your thoughts are covered with a haeavy fog
Just cut through it and get to me

Both:

I wanna touch you again

With my mind, my words, my lips – my fingers....
And feel you...

She:

And now I finally understand
Your eyes spoke the truth:
You'll never leave!

Chorus3:

No I can't bear this without you, it's killing me,
I'll take the shot with you!
And finally together behind these lines
'Cause you don't wanna be free!

Cause you will never leave!
/Cause I will never leave!
