

POLITICAL

Do you dare to say I
Never trusted you
Like I'm the only one who
Knew the truth
Sometimes in your eyes
I see sincerity
But the lies you tell
Dig a hole where you will burry:

Our lives
Our pain
Your lies
Your stains
The truth
Of human feelings
Somehow
It all stays in the ground

Chorus:

And all you can think of saying
Is trust me now
But when I refuse your words
You say goodbye
If time doesn't treat you well
Just bide your days
And all I am thinking now
Is comon' baby close your eyes

And when the truth comes out
Do you control it?
Do you smile and wave and make us ignore it?
Cause when the lights fade down
Do you think we'll be here?
And silently wait for you
Knowing you'll try to

Deny
The truth
And hide
The proof
You break us
And you, you lie
Don't worry
It will all stay in the ground
